reGeneration

July 13–October 21, 2012

NEW ENTRY DEADLINE: April 16, 2012

Dear Artist,

On behalf of the City of Bellevue, I invite you to take part in our eleventh biennial sculpture exhibition, Bellwether 2012: reGeneration. We'll be including outdoor installations and sculpture along a $\frac{3}{4}$ mile route through the heart of our dynamic Downtown.

Bellwether is a community favorite that draws visitors from throughout Bellevue and the Puget Sound region. The two anchor sites, City Hall and Downtown Park, are terrific venues for showcasing art. The walk that connects them offers a variety of contexts and themes for sculpture or installations. With nearly 45,000 people working in our Downtown, and over 10,000 residents living Downtown, all the sites are well-travelled. This is a great opportunity to display your art to a sophisticated, multicultural audience.

Our community is a dynamic cultural center serving King County's Eastside, and this recurring exhibition is a key contributor to the excitement that characterizes our growing city. The Arts Commission is committed to making sure the exhibition is an outstanding experience for artists as well as the community at large. Please join us by submitting your entry. I hope to see you at the opening celebration on July 13.

Sincerely,

*Most sites are unsupervised. Limited security is provided at City-owned sites. See Installation details sheet, enclosed.

Sites: Bellwether 2012: reGeneration (BW) is sited along a ¾ mile route between Bellevue City Hall and the Downtown Park, tracing part of a future permanent Art Walk. City Hall and the Downtown Park are BW's anchor sites with will focus on sculpture. In addition, up to five installations will be sited on private property between the two anchor sites to link the two anchors and create a temporary art walk path. Please see Installation Supplemental Information sheet enclosed for more information about installations.

Selection Criteria: Sculptures and installations will be selected based on quality and aesthetic appeal. Entries aligning with BW's theme will then receive preferred consideration.

Jury and selection process: competitive entry process juried by a panel of regionally and nationally recognized arts professionals. The panel will create a shortlist of selected entries, followed by a review by the City to consider questions of feasibility, liability and theme consistency.

Additional Reimbursement Opportunities: A limited amount of additional funds for shipping reimbursement is available. Artists whose work is selected for BW may request an application for additional shipping reimbursement. Additional reimbursement decisions will be made on a case-by-case basis.

Installation:

Outdoor Sculptures ~ Free professional installation

Indoor sculptures ~ Installed by artist with limited, free professional assistance

Installations ~ Installed by artist with limited, free professional assistance

Please complete both sides of the enclosed Installation Worksheet and submit with your entry.

Loan Agreement: Each selected artist or authorized artist representative will sign a loan agreement with the City, authorizing the display of a selected sculpture for the duration of BW.

Insurance: Exhibited sculptures and installations will be insured by the City of Bellevue for the duration of their display in BW, with a deductible of $200. If applied, this deductible will be the responsibility of each artist. Specific terms for insurance are included in the loan agreement.

Sales: Works in the exhibition may be listed for sale, and the City takes no commission. We'll be delighted if your work sells and ask that any work sold during BW remain in the exhibition until it closes.

Bellwether 2012 THEME: reGeneration

A bellwether is an early sign of what's to come. "reGeneration" is the central theme for the 2012 Exhibition. Our community like many others has transformed over the last several years. Most visible are the growth as a multicultural community and the emergence of a dynamic, high-rise downtown with 45,000 employees and 10,000 residents. In past exhibitions artists focused on sustainability. Today, as we re-define our community to include these added dimensions, we invite artists to explore ideas of sustainable transformation and regeneration at both the material and human level that facilitate bringing together of our community for public good.

All entries regardless of theme are welcome.

ENTRY INSTRUCTIONS

Number of Entries: Each artist may enter any combination of up to three sculptures and installations. Each art work entered must be no more than five years old.

Submission: By mail or delivery. Unfortunately we don't have the capacity to accept a large number of entries online. References to websites will not be considered entries.

All entries must include:

Describe installation support system: _____

It is critical that artwork be structurally sound and all installation support systems be suitable for seismic and secure installation.

All outdoor sculptures will be installed by a city art installation contractor.

All indoor sculptures will be installed by the artist or an artist representative. Limited assistance will be provided.

Artist is responsible for coordinating delivery and/or shipment of sculpture for installation.

Artist may contract separately with city contractor for assistance with packing, crating, and/or shipping.

Artist or artist representative must be available on the following dates:

April 9 to May 16, 2012:

to respond to questions via phone or email correspondence

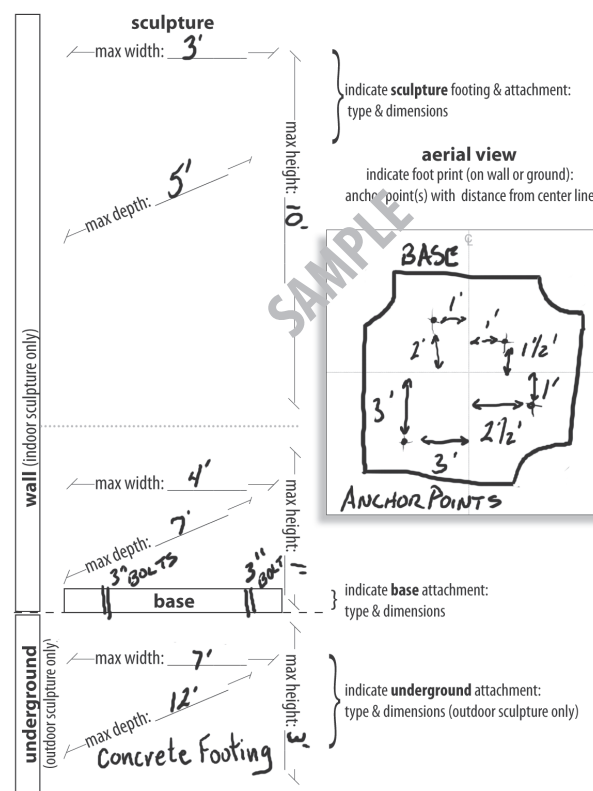

June 27 to July 12, 2012:

to ensure delivery of artwork to the city contractor

October 22 to 26, 2012:

to ensure retrieval/shipping of artwork

Installations Supplemental Information Sheet

Installations defined. For BW purposes, we are defining installations roughly as site-specific art works with many components. The honorarium rate for Installations will be for art installations sited in between City Hall and the Downtown Park.

Potential Installation Locations. The following locations are tentative, pending the property owner/manager's agreement to participate.

1. Bellevue Transit Center or plaza directly south

Comments: Transit Center itself is a block-long, narrow facility. Most likely there is no ground level opportunity. Lighting and applications in rafters are more likely opportunities. To the immediate south is a large, open plaza which accommodates both cars (valet parking for a restaurant) and pedestrians. The plaza may be used instead or in addition to the Transit Center.

2. Planting beds along north side of the Galleria, next to Rock Bottom Restaurant and Brewery Comment: Approx 275' long x 16' at widest point & about 8' wide at narrow point. Bed should have minimal or no disruption.

3. Pedestrian Corridor, between 106th and Bellevue Way.

Comment: could include planting bed treatments and fence treatments. Power available in several locations.

4. 4 corners of the intersection of NE4th and Bellevue Way

Comment: This intersection marks the transition from business to parks or nature in the Downtown. Right of Way considerations – public safety and access will need to be considered. Probably a 4-corners treatment would be most successful.

Vetting the Panel Recommendations. About 5 outdoor installation proposals may be sited between City Hall and Downtown Park. However, the selection panel will be encouraged to recommend more than 5 proposals, identifying their top five. Each recommended proposal will be vetted by professional art installers and city staff to assess the following aspects of the proposal.

- Are needed resources, such as electricity, available at the site?
- Can the installation be installed and removed in a way that makes site restoration reasonably easy?
- Are the proposed materials and assembly durable enough to last the exhibition with minimal maintenance?
- Are there any public safety issues posed?
- Is the artist or artist team willing to work with property owners as well as exhibition staff and representatives to tailor the installation for the site selected?
- Does the exhibit create an undue risk of liability to the City?
- Is the artwork consistent with the Exhibit theme?
